Pray – Ask God to help you listen to His voice through His Word and SpiritRead – Scripture Passage: Matthew 18:21-35Apply – Use the following “SPECK” questions as a guide for finding applications.

1. Is there a sin to confess?
2. Is there a promise to believe?
3. Is there an example to follow?
4. Is there a command to obey?
5. Is there a truth to know?

Interact – Write about one or applications from the text you feel God wants you to work on. One good way to write is in the form of a prayer to God. You can choose any one of the above questions about the text to help.

1. Sin to Confess – This parable talks about the inconsistency between God’s forgiveness of my great sin and me holding grudges against others’ little offenses against me. Father, I confess I’ve not forgiven my friend from the heart. Help me do that this week.

5. Truth to Know – Father, thank you so much for forgiving my sins in Christ. Help me know and appreciate that more. Set me free from bitterness.

Interact – Write about one or applications from the text you feel God wants you to work on. One good way to write is in the form of a prayer to God. You can choose any one of the above questions about the text to help.

Father, I love this conversation You had with Jeremiah! You knew him and had a call on his life even before he was born. When he downplayed that call and wallowed his inadequacy, You graciously corrected him and provided words for him to say. Father, I so often let my feelings of inadequacy hamper my faith and, rather than what You think of me and what you call me to be and do in Christ. Help me care more about what you think of me than what I think of myself.

9. Some commands to obey, by God's grace:

- Stop being lazy, be diligent (v. 4-5)
- Be teachable and correctable (v. 8, 17)
- Give people the benefit of the doubt (v. 12)
- Don't be quick to speak (v. 19)

Father, help me use my time more for your Kingdom than my own. I waste so much time! I resist correction. Humble me. Help me love people more by listening to them before I rush to speak. I need your grace to help me obey these commands.
